Saints Peter and Paul - Year C

29 June 2025

Readings and Reflections for this Sunday

Saints Peter and Paul are two of the great leaders of the Church in the first decades of its history, but these two apostles did not always see eye to eye. One of the challenges for the early Church was to figure out how much the followers of Christ needed to obey the provisions of the Jewish law. This became a burning issue when Gentiles started to become Christians. It was resolved in a Council at Jerusalem which said that only the very minimum was required. Paul takes this good news and energetically continues to proclaim the gospel to all. Peter is on-side, but he backs away from the Gentile Christian community when Jewish Christians are present. For Paul this is not good enough, and he criticises Peter openly. But they are both on the same side – the side of Christ! It is a very important lesson for us to see that there can be differences of opinion and different approaches in the Church. Unity is not uniformity. Catholic means all-embracing.

Brisbane's New Shepherd, Archbishop-elect Shane Mackinlay

We look ahead with joy to the installation of Archbishop-elect Shane Mackinlay as the new shepherd of the Archdiocese of Brisbane this September. Reflecting on his transition from Sandhurst, he honours the inspiring legacy of Apostolic Administrator Archbishop Mark Coleridge and looks forward to learning, leading, and fostering strong bonds across our community. Let us keep him in our prayers as he prepares to embrace this new chapter.

How about making a local group?

Catholic formation

MODULE 2: UNDERSTANDING, PRAYING AND LIVING THE SCRIPTURES

An invitation is now extended for people to participate in the second module from the Archdiocesan Centre for Catholic Formation.

This program engages participants in the scriptures, exploring their inspiration, canonisation, unity and how to interpret scripture within the Catholic tradition. It will also provide participants with introductions to various books within the bible as well as theological principals that inform the Catholic reading of scripture. Beyond the mechanics, you will receive an experience of listening to the voice of God in scripture i.e. moving beyond the text to being experienced as God's word to us.

The course will run across 10 sessions (2 hours per session), commencing 4 August. There is an option to register as a local hub and complete the course together via an online link.

Deacon Andrew suggests this is a good opportunity for formation and we can do it in a local hub. Only 5 participants are needed but more can join. Please contact parish office if you are interested.
